10 Quality Inspection

In-line inspection:

An inspection that takes place when the first part of the order has been produced.

3 pieces/size are to be checked during production to ensure that the products fulfil customer expectations and demands.

Approved measurement list, computer order, sealed counter sample and a test report are available during inspection.

Final inspection:

An inspection that takes place when May's has completed packing and ready for shipment. The products are selected at random, in all sizes and colours from all countries, to check quality, measurements and packing.

Speaking the Language of Sustainability

Our values help us drive positive change and act in a rewarding way as a trusted partner in the fashion industry. As one of the biggest clothing manufacturers in Uzbekistan and a solution partner for global brands, we know we can make a real difference. As we wholeheartedly believe, style, design, and production have to speak the language of sustainability, helping to transform the fashion industry for the better.

We are aware of our current impact, and we believe we should help create a better world. In order to achieve this vital goal, all our corporate strategies and policies are defined within the framework of sustainability. We plan all our actions and progress based on our sustainability plan, which is structured on our corporate values. We aim to make sustainability a part of MAY'S DNA.
